NOR 1450 (including 260 in the Sixth Form)

Learning Support Assistant - SEMH (Social, Emotional & Mental Health) focus

32 hours per week, term time + 5 days

Band 4 - £14,854 - £16,079 (being prorate of £19,554 - £21,166)

We are looking to appoint a specialist LSA position to support students and the school in the area SEMH. The role will involve supporting a range of students with varying needs both within the classroom and in smaller or 1:1 interventions. There is a focus within the post on supporting students with a specific group of additional needs and in supporting developing outstanding practice for their provision within school. The role will include liaising with students, staff and parents as well as tracking and recording interventions and progress outcomes.

Further details of these posts and application forms are available on our website (www.dchs-alnwick.org) or by telephoning the school on 01665 602166.

The School is committed to safeguarding and protecting the welfare of children. The successful candidate will be subject to an enhanced DBS check.

Closing Date: 12.00 noon on Friday 20th September 2019
