

Join our Team – Teaching Assistant Required for September 2020

“The school is a ‘learning family’ where all staff are good role models” (Ofsted)

Grangetown is a vibrant, friendly and welcoming learning community. We are seeking to appoint a highly motivated, enthusiastic and hard-working Teaching Assistant to provide support for children and teachers. This post is a maternity cover, from 1st September 2020 until Friday 30th April 2021.

Pay scale: Grade 2 points 5-6 (£18795 -£19171).

Hours: Autumn Term, 32.5 hours, mornings in KS1 and afternoons in KS2 (daily 8.30-3.30). Spring Term & part of Summer Term), 25 hours in KS1 (8.30-12.00, 1 day 8.30-4.00, 1 day 8.30-4.30). The extra hours in Autumn Term are because we are receiving additional funding to support a Key Stage 2 pupil, for that term only.

The successful candidate should:

- Be a high-quality practitioner with high expectations for all children.
- Be proficient in supporting all aspects of teaching and learning
- Be an effective communicator and keen to work in collaboration with colleagues

In return we will offer you:

- A positive ethos that celebrates success and values teamwork.
- The chance to work in a climate of trust and respect.
- A strong commitment to your continued professional development.
- Large classrooms, a creative approach to curriculum, and fantastic resources.

Visits to the school are welcomed. To arrange a visit please contact our school Office (0191 5140101).

Application Packs and further details are available from: www.northeastjobs.org.uk
Completed applications should be emailed (office@grangetown.sunderland.sch.uk) or posted to the school.

Closing Date: Monday 6th July. Interviews: Week commencing 13th July.
